Mrs. Bessie McFarland of Sedalia made a visit with her sister, Mrs. Albert Tyree, the latter part of last week.

Wm. Worland "chaperoned by Wm. Barnes," once a Lafayette county citizen, now of Oklahoma,

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Desperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 134 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently.

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

is in the neighborhood visiting old friends. If you ever knew "Bill" once you will never forget him.

Miss Jamie Sherwood visited with friends and relatives here the latter part of last week.

Misses Grace and Susie Vandersdale left Thursday for Malta Bend, where they will visit with her grandparents and other friends.

Hon. Paul P. Prosser was here last Thursday. He found friends here to support him in his race for Congress from this district. He will speak here July 20th, the Woodman Picnic day.

Officer 666.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion that no play produced in the past dozen years has aroused as much favorable comment as that heard for Cohan & Harris' production of "Officer 666," the farce that has been booked for an engagement in this city next season.

"Officer 666" was written by Augustin MacHugh, who is credited with having evolved one of the most intensely interesting plays produced in America in a decade.
